

Unsupported Excess Casualty Insurance

Admiral Insurance offers commercial excess casualty coverage that is designed for moderate- to high-risk general liability accounts. This coverage is made available exclusively by our national network of wholesale brokers.

What is excess casualty insurance?

In today's highly competitive marketplace, most companies can't afford to pay out of pocket if coverage limits leave them with large expenses. Excess casualty insurance picks up where your underlying policy leaves off. Without excess liability coverage, your clients could suffer major losses if an accident causes them to incur expenses outside the limits of their existing coverage. Our underwriters can offer unsupported excess limits within a variety of coverage classes.
